

As chiastically-arranged scenes, according to Wenham (cf. 2:4-3:24):

A: 6:9-21: divine monologue addressed to Noah; verbal: "to ruin all flesh," "confirm my covenant," "fill the earth," "to eat"
 B: 6:22: narrative: Noah main actor
 C: 7:1-4: divine monologue addressed to Noah
 D: 7:5-16: narrative: Noah and animals; verbal: date formula; covering ark by God
 E: 7:17-24: narrative: rising water
 E': 8:1-5: narrative: falling water
 D': 8:6-14: narrative: Noah and birds; verbal: date formula; uncovering ark by Noah
 C': 8:15-17: divine monologue addressed to Noah
 B': 8:18-19: narrative: Noah main actor
A': 8:20-9:17: divine monologue addressed to Noah; verbal: "to ruin all flesh," "confirm my covenant," "fill the earth," "to eat"

As twelve paragraphs with two sets of six, according to Cassuto:

SET ONE: ACTS OF DIVINE JUSTICE

6:9-12: the situation
6:13-22: God's decision
7:1-5: instructions to enter the ark
7:6-9: the entrance
7:10-16: commencement of flood
7:17-24: the flood

SET TWO: ACTS OF DIVINE COMPASSION

8:1-14: end of flood
8:15-17: instructions for leaving the ark
8:18-22: the exit
9:1-7: blessing
9:8-11: covenant
9:12-17: the sign

6:9-9:19: chiastic pattern, according to Wes (adapted from others):

A: 6:9-10: transitional intro: Noah and sons
 B: 6:11-12: violence in creation
 C: 6:13-22: first divine speech: resolve to destroy
 D: 7:1-10: second divine speech: "enter ark" (7 days)
 E: 7:11-16: beginning of flood (7:17a: 40 days)
 F: 7:17-24: rising flood (150 days)
 G: 8:1a: God remembered Noah
 F': 8:1b-5: receding flood (150 days)
 E': 8:6-14: drying of earth (40 days) (8:6: 7 days)
 D': 8:15-19: third divine speech: "leave ark"
 C': 8:20-22: God's resolve to preserve
 B': 9:1-17: fourth divine speech: covenant
A': 9:18-19: transitional conclusion: Noah and sons