

“Temple” (naos) in Revelation

3.12	If you conquer, I will make you a pillar in the temple of my God ; you will never go out of it.
7.15	For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple , and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.
11.1-2	Then I was given a measuring rod like a staff, and I was told, " Come and measure the temple of God and the altar and those who worship there, but do not measure the court outside the temple ; leave that out, for it is given over to the nations, and they will trample over the holy city for forty-two months.
11.19	Then God's temple in heaven was opened , and the ark of his covenant was seen within his temple ; and there were flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, an earthquake, and heavy hail.
14.15	Another angel came out of the temple , calling with a loud voice to the one who sat on the cloud, "Use your sickle and reap, for the hour to reap has come, because the harvest of the earth is fully ripe."
14.17	Then another angel came out of the temple in heaven , and he too had a sharp sickle.
15.5-6	After this I looked, and the temple of the tent of witness in heaven was opened , and out of the temple came the seven angels with the seven plagues, robed in pure bright linen, with golden sashes across their chests.
15.8	and the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power , and no one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were ended .
16.1	Then I heard a loud voice from the temple telling the seven angels, "Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath of God."
16.17	The seventh angel poured his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple, from the throne , saying, "It is done!"
21.22	I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb .
