Sea (thallasa)

4.6	in front of the throne there is something like a sea of glass , like crystal.
5.13	Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea , and all that is in them, singing, "To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!"
7.1	After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so that no wind could blow on earth or sea or against any tree. [also, 7.2, 3)
8.8	The second angel blew his trumpet, and something like a great mountain, burning with fire, was thrown into the sea.
8.9	A third of the sea became blood , a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.
10.2	Setting his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land [also, 10.5, 6, 8]
12.12	"Rejoice then, you heavens and those who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea , for the devil has come down to you with great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!"
13.1	And I saw a beast rising out of the sea having ten horns and seven heads; and on its horns were ten diadems, and on its heads were blasphemous names.
14.7	He said in a loud voice, " Fear God and give him glory, for the hour of his judgment has come; and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water. "
15.2	And I saw what appeared to be a sea of glass mixed with fire , and those who had conquered the beast and its image and the number of its name, standing beside the sea of glass with harps of God in their hands.
16.3	The second angel poured his bowl into the sea , and it became like the blood of a corpse , and every living thing in the sea died.
18.17b-18	And all shipmasters and seafarers, sailors and all whose trade is on the sea, stood far off and cried out as they saw the smoke of her burning, "What city was like the great city?" [also, 18.19]
18.21	Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea , saying, "With such violence Babylon the great city will be thrown down, and will be found no more..."
20.13	And the sea gave up the dead that were in it , Death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and all were judged according to what they had done.
21.1	Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.

9.14	saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates. "
12.15-16	Then from his mouth the serpent poured water like a river after the woman , to sweep her away with the flood. But the earth came to the help of the woman; it opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon had poured from his mouth.
16.4	The third angel poured his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and they became blood.
16.12	The sixth angel poured his bowl on the great river Euphrates , and its water was dried up in order to prepare the way for the kings from the east.
22.1-2	Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.
