BACKGROUND: after the collapse of the Davidic dynasty with the Babylonian conquest of Jerusalem, biblical writers began substituting the patriarchal covenant for the Davidic one, as in these psalm excerpts:

Psalm 89.3-4, 38-39

3 You said, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one, I have sworn to my servant David:

4 'I will establish your descendants forever, and build your throne for all generations.'"
38 But now you have spurned and rejected him; you are full of wrath against your anointed.
39 You have renounced the covenant with your servant; you have defiled his crown in the dust.

Psalm 105.6-10

6 O offspring of his servant Abraham, children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

7 He is YHWH our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

8 He is mindful of his covenant forever, of the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations,

9 the covenant that he made with Abraham, his sworn promise to Isaac,

10 which he confirmed to Jacob as a statute, to Israel as an everlasting covenant
