“those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring [Greek, pēgē] of water gushing up to eternal life.” (John 4.14)

To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring [Greek, pēgē] of the water of life. (Rev 21.6)

my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the spring [Greek, pēgē] of living water, and dug out cisterns for themselves, cracked cisterns that can hold no water. (Jeremiah 2.13)

a spring [Greek, pēgē] would rise from the earth, and water the whole face of the ground... (Genesis 2.6)

Happy are those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or take the path that sinners tread, or sit in the seat of scoffers; but their delight is in the law of YHWH, and on his law they meditate day and night. They are like trees planted by streams of water, which yield their fruit in its season, and their leaves do not wither. In all that they do, they prosper. The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away. Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous; for YHWH watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish. (Psalm 1)

water was flowing from below the threshold of the temple toward the east...and it was a river that I could not cross, for the water had risen;... I saw on the bank of the river a great many trees on the one side and on the other. (Ezekiel 47.1, 5, 7)

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. (Rev 22.1)
