

1 Samuel 21.3-9 key words

Now then, what have you under your hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever is under your hand." The priest answered David, "I have no ordinary bread under my hand, only holy bread--provided that the young men have kept themselves from women." David answered the priest, "Indeed women have been kept from us as always when I go on an expedition; the vessels of the young men are holy even when it is a common journey; how much more today will their vessels be holy?" So the priest gave him the holy bread; for there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence, which is removed from before YHWH, to be replaced by hot bread on the day it is taken away.

Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained [constrained?] before YHWH; his name was Doeg the Edomite, the chief of Saul's shepherds.

David said to Ahimelech, "Is there no spear or sword here under your hand? I did not bring my sword or my vessels with me, because the king's business required haste." The priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Elah, is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod; if you will take that, take it, for there is none here except that one." David said, "There is none like it; give it to me."
