

Doors and knocking in Luke's Gospel

11.7	And he answers from within, ' Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.'
11.9-10	9 "So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.
12.36	"...be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. "
13.24-25	"Strive to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able. When once the owner of the house has got up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, open to us,' then in reply he will say to you, 'I do not know where you come from.'
