

“not strong enough” [ou ischuō] in Luke

That one is like a man building a house, who dug deeply and laid the foundation on rock; when a flood arose, the river burst against that house but was not strong enough, because it had been well built. (6.48)

Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years; and though she had spent all she had on physicians, no one was strong enough to cure her. (8.43)

"Strive to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be strong enough." (13.24)

"Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not strong enough to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not strong enough to finish.'" (14.29-30)

Then the manager said to himself, 'What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg.' (16.3)

And they were not strong enough in the presence of the people to trap him by what he said; and being amazed by his answer, they became silent. (20.26)
