

GENESIS 27.1-4

When Isaac was old and his eyes were dim so that he could not see, he called his elder son Esau and said to him, "My son"; and he answered, "Here I am." He said, "See, I am old; I do not know the day of my death. Now then, take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and hunt game for me. Then prepare for me savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me to eat, so that I may bless you before I die."

Now Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to his son Esau. So when Esau went to the field to hunt for game and bring it, Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "I heard your father say to your brother Esau, 'Bring me game, and prepare for me savory food to eat, that I may bless you before YHWH's face before I face death.' Now then, my son, hear my voice as I command you. Go to the flock, and get me two choice kids, so that I may prepare from them savory food for your father, such as he loves; and you shall take it to your father to eat, so that he may bless you before he dies."
