

Luke 17.20-37 keywords

Once Jesus was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, and he answered, "The kingdom of God is not coming with things that can be observed; nor will they say, 'Look, here it is!' or 'There it is!' For, look, the kingdom of God is among you." Then he said to the disciples, "The days are coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Human One, and you will not see it. They will say to you, 'Look there!' or 'Look here!' Do not go, do not set off in pursuit. For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, so will the Human One be in his day. But first he must endure much suffering and be rejected by this generation.

Just as it was in the days of Noah, likewise it will be in the days of the Human One.

They were eating and drinking, and marrying and being given in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed all of them.

Likewise, just as it was in the days of Lot:

they were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building, but on the day that Lot left Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from heaven and destroyed all of them

--it will be like that on the day that the Human One is revealed.

On that day, anyone on the housetop who has belongings in the house must not come down to take them away;

and likewise anyone in the field must not turn back.

Remember Lot's wife.

Those who try to make their life secure will destroy it, but those who destroy their life will keep it.

I tell you, on that night there will be two in one bed; one will be taken and the other left.

There will be two women grinding meal together; one will be taken and the other left."

Then they asked him, "Where, Lord?"

He said to them, "Where the body is, there the eagles will gather."
