

Luke 19.11-27 keywords [bold] and rare words [underlined]

As they were listening to this, he went on to tell a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God was to appear immediately. So he said, "A nobleman went to a distant country to take the kingship for himself and then return. He summoned ten of his slaves, and gave them ten pounds, and said to them, 'Turn a profit [pragmateusasthe, only here in NT] with these until I come back.' But the citizens of his country hated him and sent a delegation [presbeia, only 14.32 elsewhere in NT] after him, saying, 'We do not want this man to be king over us.'

When he returned, having taken the kingship, he ordered these slaves, to whom he had given the money, to be summoned so that he might find out what they had gained by trading [diepragmateusanto, only here in NT]. The first came forward and said, 'Lord, your pound has made [prosergasato, only here in NT] ten more pounds!' He said to him, 'Well done [euge, only here in NT], good slave! Because you have been trustworthy in a very small thing, have authority over ten cities.'

Then the second came, saying, 'Lord, your pound has made five pounds!' He said to him, 'And you, be over five cities.'

Then the other came, saying, 'Lord, here is your pound. I wrapped it up in a piece of cloth, for I was afraid of you, because you are a harsh [austeros, only here and next verse in NT] man; you take what you did not deposit, and reap what you did not sow.' He said to him, 'I will judge you by your own words, you wicked slave! You knew, did you, that I was a harsh man, taking what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow? Why then did you not put my money into the bank? Then when I returned, I could have collected it with interest. [tokos, only here and Matthew 25.27 in NT]' He said to the bystanders, 'Take the pound from him and give it to the one who has ten pounds!' (And they said to him, 'Lord, he has ten pounds!') 'I tell you, to all those who have, more will be given; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. But as for these enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them--bring them here and slaughter [katasphagete, only here in NT] them in my presence.'"
