

Simon Peter in Luke

4.38	After leaving the synagogue he entered Simon's house. Now Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked him about her.
5.3-10	He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon , and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon , "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon .
6.14	Simon , whom he named Peter , and his brother Andrew..
8.45	Then Jesus asked, "Who touched me?" When all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds surround you and press in on you."
8.51	When he came to the house, he did not allow anyone to enter with him, except Peter , John, and James, and the child's father and mother.
9.20	He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered, "The Messiah of God."
9.32-33	Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"--not knowing what he said.
12.41	Peter said, "Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for everyone?"
18.28	Then Peter said, "Look, we have left our homes and followed you."
22.8	So Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover meal for us that we may eat it."
22.31	" Simon, Simon , listen! Satan has demanded to sift all of you like wheat..."
22.34	Jesus said, "I tell you, Peter , the cock will not crow this day, until you have denied three times that you know me."
22.54-61	Then they seized him and led him away, bringing him into the high priest's house. But Peter was following at a distance. When they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them. Then a servant-girl, seeing him in the firelight, stared at him and said, "This man also was with him." But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know him." A little later someone else, on seeing him, said, "You also are one of them." But Peter said, "Man, I am not!" Then about an hour later still another kept insisting, "Surely this man also was with him; for he is a Galilean." But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about!" At that moment, while he was still speaking, the cock crowed. The Lord turned and looked at Peter . Then Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, "Before the cock crows today, you will deny me three times."
24.12	But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.
24.34	They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon! "
