

Unity and division in Luke's Passion story

22.17	Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves
22.24	A dispute also arose among them as to which one of them was to be regarded as the greatest.
22.31	"Simon, Simon, listen! Satan has demanded to sift all of you like wheat
22.58	A little later someone else, on seeing him, said, " You also are one of them. " But Peter said, "Man, I am not! "
22.66	When day came, the assembly of the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, gathered together, and they brought him to their council.
22.70	All of them asked, "Are you, then, the Son of God?"
23.1	Then the assembly rose as a body and brought Jesus before Pilate.
23.12	That same day Herod and Pilate became friends with each other; before this they had been enemies.
23.13	Pilate then called together the chief priests, the leaders, and the people
23.18, 21	Then they all shouted out together , "Away with this fellow! Release Barabbas for us!"... but they kept shouting, "Crucify, crucify him!"
23.34	And they cast lots to divide his clothing.
23.45	the curtain of the temple was torn in two.
23.48	And when all the crowds who had gathered there for this spectacle saw what had taken place, they returned home, beating their breasts.
23.49	But all his acquaintances , including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.
23.50-51a	Now there was a good and righteous man named Joseph , who, though a member of the council, had not agreed to their plan and action.
