The "way of women" in Genesis: using deception in the face of superior power

12.11-13	When [Abram] was about to enter Egypt, he said to his woman Sarai, "I know well
12.11-13	that you are a woman beautiful in appearance ; and when the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his woman'; then they will kill me, but they will let you live. Say you are my sister, so that it may go well with me because of you, and that my life may be spared on your account." 20.1b-2	While residing in Gerar as an alien, Abraham said of his woman Sarah, "She is my 20.10 2	sister." And King Abimelech of Gerar sent and took Sarah.
27.6-8	Rebekah said to her son Jacob , "I heard your father say to your brother Esau,

	YHWH before I die.' Now therefore, my son, obey my word as I command you 29.20-	So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days
23	because of the love he had for her. Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my woman that I may go in to her, for my time is completed." So Laban gathered together all the people of the place, and made a feast. But in the evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her.
31.34-35	Rachel had taken the household gods and put them in the camel's saddle, and sat on them. Laban felt all about in the tent, but did not find them. And she said to her father, "Let not my lord be angry that I cannot rise before you, for the way of women is upon me." So he searched, but did not find the household gods.
33.12-14	Then Esau said, "Let us journey on our way, and I will go alongside you." But Ja-
