

“Field” (Heb, sadeh) in 2 Samuel

1.21	You mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew or rain upon you, nor bounteous fields ! For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, the shield of Saul, anointed with oil no more.
9.7	David said to [Mephibosheth], "Do not be afraid, for I will show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan; I will restore to you all the field of your grandfather Saul, and you yourself shall eat at my table always."
10.8	The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the gate; but the Arameans of Zobah and of Rehob, and the men of Tob and Maacah, were by themselves in the open field .
11.11	Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah remain in booths; and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field ; shall I then go to my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my woman? As you live, and as your innermost self lives, I will not do such a thing."
11.23	The messenger said to David, "The men gained an advantage over us, and came out against us in the field ; but we drove them back to the entrance of the gate..."
14.6	"Your servant had two sons, and they fought with one another in the field ; there was no one to part them, and one struck the other and killed him."
17.8	Hushai continued, "You know that your father and his men are warriors, and that they are enraged, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field . Besides, your father is a man of war; he will not spend the night with the people."
18.6	So the people went out into the field against Israel; and the battle was fought in the forest of Ephraim.
19.30 (Eng 19.29)	The king said to [Mephibosheth], "Why speak any more of your affairs? I have decided: you and Ziba shall divide the field ."
20.12	Amasa lay wallowing in his blood on the highway, and the man saw that all the people were stopping. Since he saw that all who came by him were stopping, he carried Amasa from the highway into a field and threw a garment over him.
21.10	Then Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it on a rock for herself, from the beginning of harvest until rain fell on them from the heavens; she did not allow the birds of the air to come on the bodies by day, or the field animals by night.
23.11	Next to him was Shammah son of Agee, the Hararite. The Philistines gathered together at Lehi, where there was a field full of lentils; and the army fled from the Philistines.
