

Arresting the apostles and disciples in Acts

4.1-3	While Peter and John were speaking to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came to them, much annoyed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming that in Jesus there is the resurrection of the dead. So they arrested them and put them in custody until the next day...
5.17-18	Then the high priest took action; he and all who were with him (that is, the sect of the Sadducees), being filled with jealousy, arrested the apostles and put them in the public prison.
8.3	But Saul was ravaging the church by entering house after house; dragging off both men and women, he committed them to prison.
12.1-4	About that time King Herod laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church. He had James, the brother of John, killed with the sword After he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. (This was during the festival of Unleavened Bread.) When he had seized him, he put him in prison and handed him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover.
16.19b-24	... they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities. When they had brought them before the magistrates , they said, "These men are disturbing our city; they are Jews and are advocating customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to adopt or observe." The crowd joined in attacking them and the magistrates had them stripped of their clothing and ordered them to be beaten with rods. After they had given them a severe flogging, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to keep them securely. Following these instructions, he put them in the innermost cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.
21.33	Then the tribune came, arrested [Paul] , and ordered him to be bound with two chains ; he inquired who he was and what he had done.
24.27	After two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and since he wanted to grant the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul in prison.
