

Daniel's visions after he rises to power in Babylon

DANIEL 4: He interprets the king's dream to predict the downfall of Nebuchadnezzar's reign and his banishment from human society where he became like a "beast." It then takes place.

DANIEL 5: He interprets the "handwriting on the wall" of king Belshazzar, son of Nebuchadnezzar, as predicting the death of the king, which happens that night.

DANIEL 6: The jealousy of royal officials under King Darius the Mede leads to Daniel being thrown the lion's den, which he survives with the help of an angel. After, Darius decrees that the "God of Daniel" shall be revered forever.

DANIEL 7: He has a vision of four "beasts" followed by a "one like a human being" who is given eternal reign by the Ancient of Days, replacing the sovereignty of the "beasts."

DANIEL 8: He has a vision of a ram and goat battling, which represent the kings of Media, Persia and Greece, battling for sovereignty, to be followed by another king, whose reign "shall be broken and not by human hands."

DANIEL 9: He prays in supplication for his people, then is interrupted by a vision of the angel Gabriel, who explains events that lead to the setting up of "an abomination that desolates."

DANIEL 10: He has a vision of an unnamed, seemingly angelic figure, who tells Daniel that he (the angel) must "return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I am through with him, the prince of Greece will come."

DANIEL 11: He has a long, complex vision of a series of unnamed rulers (Seleucids) battling over "the beautiful land" (Israel/Judah), but he will "come to his end with no one to help him."

DANIEL 12: The previous vision continues with the promise of rescue by Michael, "the great prince, the protector of your people," and then "many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake..."
