| 5.19-20 | But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors, brought them out, and said, "Go, stand in the temple and tell the people the whole message about this life." |
| 6.15 | And all who sat in the council looked intently at him, and they saw that [Stephen's] face was like the face of an angel . |
| 7.30, 38 | "Now when forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in the flame of a burning bush....He is the one who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him at Mount Sinai, and with our ancestors; and he received living oracles to give to us." |
| 7.53 | "You are the ones that received the law as ordained by angels , and yet you have not kept it." |
| 8.26 | Then an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a wilderness road.) |
| 10.3 | One afternoon at about three o'clock he had a vision in which he clearly saw an angel of God coming in and saying to him, "Cornelius." [recalled at 10.22; 11.13] |
| 12.7-11 | Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him, saying, "Get up quickly." And the chains fell off his wrists. The angel said to him, "Fasten your belt and put on your sandals." He did so. Then he said to him, "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me." Peter went out and followed him; he did not realize that what was happening with the angel's help was real; he thought he was seeing a vision. After they had passed the first and the second guard, they came before the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them of its own accord, and they went outside and walked along a lane, when suddenly the angel left him. Then Peter came to himself and said, "Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hands of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting." |
| 12.14-16 | On recognizing Peter's voice, she was so overjoyed that, instead of opening the gate, she ran in and announced that Peter was standing at the gate. They said to her, "You are out of your mind!" But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his angel ." Meanwhile Peter continued knocking; and when they opened the gate, they saw him and were amazed. |
| 12.23 | And immediately, because [Herod] had not given the glory to God, an angel of the Lord struck him down, and he was eaten by worms and died. |
| 23.8-9 | The Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, or angel , or spirit; but the Pharisees acknowledge all three. Then a great clamor arose, and certain scribes of the Pharisees' group stood up and contended, "We find nothing wrong with this man. What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?" |
| 27.23-24 | For last night there stood by me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I worship, and he said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before the emperor; and indeed, God has granted safety to all those who are sailing with you.' |
